

MEGAN KREMPA

megankrempa.com

EDUCATION

- 2025 - Present      Master of Journalism
University of King's College, Halifax, Nova Scotia
- 2025                Master of Information, Certificate in Librarianship
Dalhousie University, Halifax, Nova Scotia
- 2022                Bachelor of Arts (First Class Honours), History of Science & Technology and Philosophy
University of King's College, Halifax, Nova Scotia
-

SCHOLARSHIPS/AWARDS

- 2025 - 2026            River Philip Foundation Journalism Scholarship
- 2021 - 2022            Sandra MacLeod Award
- 2019 - 2021            Beaver Club Award
-

EMPLOYMENT

Conference Management

- 2026                Canadian Society for the History and Philosophy of Science
- 2025                Canadian Science and Technology Historical Association
- 2025                Canadian Society for the History and Philosophy of Science
- 2024                "Circulating Knowledge: 20 Years On" (University of King's College)
- Assisting organizers in planning and managing the logistics and administration of the conference (such as record keeping, grant submission, room bookings, etc.)
  - Developing the conference's website
  - Managing abstract submissions and conference registration.
  - Leading the development of the online exhibit associated with the conference (Circulating Knowledge only)

Teaching Assistantships

- Summer 2025 HSTC 2102: Origins of Modern Medicine, University of King's College
- Winter 2025 Introduction to the History of Science II - From the Birth of the Modern to the Present, University of King's College
- Fall 2025 Introduction to the History of Science I: From the Ancients to the Birth of the Modern, University of King's College
- Winter 2024 ASSC1801: Case Studies in Computing, Dalhousie University
- Fall 2023 ASSC1800: Computing and Society in History, Dalhousie University
- Winter 2023 ASSC1801: Case Studies in Computing, Dalhousie University
- Fall 2022 ASSC1800: Computing and Society in History, Dalhousie University
- Winter 2021 CSC1801: Case Studies in the History of Computer Science, Dalhousie University
- Fall 2020 CSC1800: Computing and Society in History, Dalhousie University
- Led tutorials of up to 30 students (excluding Origins of Modern Medicine)
  - Marked papers, provided constructive feedback

General

- Oct. 2025 - Present Precision Instrument Culture in Canada / Circulating Knowledge Virtual Exhibit, Ingenium
- Research, find, and develop a database of Atlantic Canadian precision instrument makers
  - Connect with various museum and industry stakeholders
  - Develop the Virtual Exhibit website using Omeka, improving functionality
  - Write report of makers and deliver presentation on work
- 2025 - Present Worlds of Journalism Data Analyst, University of King's College
- Used R to statistically analyze data
  - Produced charts and graphs for publication
- Summer 2024 Scientific Biographies Student Intern, Science History Institute, Philadelphia
- Proposed, researched, and wrote biographies of scientists
  - Copy edited exhibit panelling for new display on the Weapon Salve
  - Developed and researched new exhibit on biographies
  - Drafted proposal for implementing search filters for the Scientific Biographies page

Jun. 2023 - Jan. 2024 Communications and Member Engagement Assistant, Science Atlantic

- Digitizing archival records, creating an archives website, editing Wordpress, creating graphics, copy editing

May 2018 - Dec. 2022 Student Assistant, Advancement Office, University of King's College

- Used Blackbaud to code new students
- Researched and reached out to alumni to update their contact information

Summer 2021 Student Assistant Program, University of King's College

- Documenting, photographing and archiving collection of artefacts, building a Collective Access site

Summer 2020 Student Assistant Program, University of King's College

- Created a list of diverse sources for King's undergraduate programs under the King's Diversity Initiative

---

CONFERENCES AND MEDIA

Nov. 2023 Canadian Science and Technology Historical Association, Halifax NS
"To Not Be Missed: Harriet Brooks and the (re)writing of the history of science"

Nov. 2023 4S (Society for Social Studies of Science), Honolulu, HI
"To Not Be Missed: Harriet Brooks and the (re)writing of the history of science"

May 2023 Canadian Society for the History and Philosophy of Science, Toronto
"To Not Be Missed: Harriet Brooks and the writing of the history of science"

2020 Canadian Society for the History and Philosophy of Science
(cancelled due to COVID-19) "Time after time: An analysis of the development of radioactive time"

2020 Canadian Society for the History and Philosophy of Science
(cancelled due to COVID-19) "Digging up the Past: Reflections on the Role of Provenance Studies in the History of Science" (Blais et al.)

Podcast appearance: "Episode 13: A Towering Mathematical Poet" Interview with Frances Lynch and Dr. Patricia Fara about the work of Elizabeth Tollet. Electric Voice Theater.

2019 Canadian Society for the History and Philosophy of Science
“Isolated in time, place, and memory: a history of female engineers in Canada”

2019 King’s History of Science and Technology Society Conference, Halifax
“Ada Lovelace, Historical Context, and the Musical Engine Thought Experiment”

2018 King’s Early Modern Studies Society Conference, Halifax
Paper on Piero della Francesca’s The Resurrection’s connection to mathematics

---

COMMUNITY / EXTRACURRICULAR

2026 - Present Co-editor, King’s History of Science and Technology Society

2025 - Present Contributor, Dalhousie Gazette

2025 - Present Alto Section Lead, Trinity Anglican Church

2023 - 2024 Academic Chair, Dalhousie Information Science Student Association

2020 - 2022 President, King’s History of Science and Technology Society